Safety

How do we fix it?

- We have chosen a risky lifestyle
- ORM basics
  - Identify risks
    - Drinking alcohol
    - Warfighting
    - Driving
    - Flying
    - Boating
    - Operations aboard ship and in the field
  - Weigh risks versus gains

Suicide

- SECOND GREATEST cause of death of Marines
  - 23 Marines committed suicide in CY2003
  - 85 Marines attempted suicide in CY2003
  - 39 Marines gestured suicide in CY2003
- 23 Marines have committed suicide thus far this year (through 24 Sep 2004)
  - 66 attempts
  - 31 gestures
- Suicide is an equal opportunity killer, indiscriminant of grade, age, race or gender

Suicide Prevention

- AID-LIFE
  - Ask the Marine if they're thinking about suicide
  - Intervene immediately
  - Don't keep it a secret – inform the chain of command
  - Locate help (doctor, nurse, corpsman, chaplain, duty) immediately
  - Inform your chain of command
  - Find someone to stay with the Marine
  - Expedite!
- Seeking help is NOT a sign of weakness

Sexual Harassment

- Unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors
- Verbal, nonverbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature made:
  - As a term or condition of job, pay, or career
  - As a basis for career or employment decisions
  - Having the effect of interfering with an individual's work performance creating an intimidating or hostile environment
- May include conduct on or off duty, 24/7
- SEXUAL HARASSMENT DOES NOT INCLUDE SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual Harassment

- Resolving sexual harassment issues can be accomplished by addressing these issues voluntarily at the lowest possible level using the Informal Resolution System (IRS)
  - Directly confront in person
  - In writing
  - Through a third party
    - Supervisor
    - Coworker
    - Someone outside the workplace

Sexual Harassment

Possible actions for Sexual Harassment issues:

- Contact the EOR/EOA
- Request Mast
- See your command inspector
- Call the IGMC Hotline at DSN 224-1348/9 or (703) 614-1348/9
- Use the "Hotline Procedures" found at the "Inspector General" link on www.hqmc.usmc.mil

Sexual Harassment

- Commanders will create an environment of dignity and respect—ALL Marines will uphold that environment
- The following are possible corrective actions in substantiated incidents:
  - Page 11 entry
  - Adverse Fitness Report
  - Revocation of security clearance
  - NJP
  - Court-martial
  - Administrative separation

Sexual Harassment

- No Marines or civilian employees will knowingly make a false accusation of sexual harassment
- CMC guidance: reinforcing character that values honor, integrity and taking care of our Marines – including treating each other with dignity and respect
- MCO 1000.9 w/Ch 1, Sexual Harassment Order

Sexual Assault

- Criminal act
- All Marines are required to report any incident of sexual assault to their command
- MCO on sexual assault pending signature

Incompatible with Marine Corps core values!

Fraternization

Social or business relationship between Marines of different grades in violation of a custom of the Naval Service, which, in the eyes of one experienced in military leadership, impacts adversely on good order and discipline, or degrades or threatens to degrade the character or status of the position that a Marine holds.

Art. 1165 Navy Regulations

Fraternization

- Gender neutral
- Direct senior-subordinate supervisory relationship not required
- Subsequent marriage does not excuse or mitigate the conduct
- Senior has primary responsibility to avoid inappropriate relationships
- However, BOTH parties are accountable for their conduct
- Mutual respect for rank and position MUST BE maintained
- You can be the same rank and be in a leadership position . . . if you compromise yourself, or the Marines with whom you are socializing perceive a compromise, then the relationship is "unduly familiar."

Fraternization

Examples:

- Drinking alcoholic beverages together
- Playing cards or gambling together
- Going to private homes or clubs together
- Dating or engaging in sexual activities
- Engaging in commercial transactions, except for onetime sales or leases . . . real estate
- Showing favoritism or partiality
- Key issue is whether traditional distinctions between grades are ignored

Fraternization

- Improper associations
  - Relationships that are unduly familiar and that do not respect differences in grade or rank are prohibited.
  - Officer-Enlisted, Officer-Officer, and Enlisted-Enlisted
- Can easily become a case of sexual misconduct in instructor-student relationship

Hazing

I will not tolerate any instance where one Marine inflicts any form of physical or psychological abuse that degrades, insults, dehumanizes or injures another Marine. We will protect our Marines through fair, scrupulous, and unbiased treatment as individuals – caring for them, teaching them and leading them.

GEN HAGEE, CMC

ALMAR 045/03

Hazing

- Conduct by one military member to another that causes suffering or exposure to an activity that is cruel, abusive, humiliating or oppressive
- Includes but is not limited to:
  - Any form of initiation or congratulatory act that involves physically striking another to inflict pain
  - Verbally berating another
  - Encouraging another to excessively consume alcohol
  - Encouraging another to engage in illegal, harmful, demeaning or dangerous acts
  - Soliciting or coercing another to engage in hazing
- Consent by the subject is NOT a defense

MCO 1700.28

Hazing

- Marines recently punished by courts-martial have characterized incidents of hazing as pranks, jokes, or innocent fun
- “Our core values demand that we treat all Marines with dignity and respect at all times” — CMC Guidance
- It is a leadership issue; it is a warfighting issue

MCO 1700.28

Hazing

What to do about hazing?

- Inform your superiors using the chain of command
- If your immediate superiors are involved:
  - Request mast to your Commanding Officer or Commanding General
  - Notify your Command Inspector
  - Call the IGMC Hotline at (703) 614-1348/9 or DSN 224-1348/9
  - Use the “Hotline Procedures” found at the “Inspector General” link on www.hqmc.usmc.mil

Homosexual Conduct Policy

- Marines will not be asked their sexual orientation
- Commanders will not initiate an investigation unless there is credible factual information that there is a basis for discharge
  - Personal Statement
  - Acts or same sex marriage
- Marines are afforded due process and protection under UCMJ
- Conduct is incompatible with service, administrative separation processing required with proof of conduct

Request Mast

- Includes both the RIGHT of all Marines to directly communicate grievances to, or seek assistance from, their commanding officers . . .

- . . . and the REQUIREMENT for that commanding officer to consider that matter and personally respond to that Marine

MCO 1700.23E

Request Mast

- Request mast petitions should be handled within one working day at each level of command
- Marines should be afforded an opportunity to request mast in person
- Follow the formal NJP chain of command
- Vested right up to and including the immediate CG
- Any interference with a Marine's right to request mast or any attempt of reprisal is expressly prohibited and punishable under the UCMJ

Summary

- Honor—treat one another as Marines with integrity, responsibility and accountability for our actions
- Courage—do the right thing, in the right way, for the right reasons
- Commitment—devotion to the Corps and my fellow Marines

Quote

All militaries harden their recruits, instill the basics, and bend young men to their will. But the Marine Corps provides its members with a secret weapon. It gives them the unique culture of pride that makes Marines the world's premier warrior force. The Navy has its ships, the Air Force has its planes, the Army its detailed doctrine, but "culture"—the values and assumptions that shape its members—is all Marines have. They call this culture "esprit de corps."
